

वृत्तपत्राचे नांव :- डे व्ह्यु
वृत्तपत्र प्रकाशनाचे ठिकाण :- नाशिक
वृत्तपत्र पान क :- 3
दिनांक :-26/1/2011

Guru Gangeshwar Ved-Vedang awards ceremony Vedas have given a great culture to India: Dr. Deglurkar

NASHIK

SHRI Guru Ved-Vedang National awards given on behalf of the Shriman Bastiramji Sarda Sadguru Shri Gangeshwaranandji Prathishthan were given away in a serene atmosphere, here on Monday. Chairman of Deccan College Deemed University Dr. Goraksha B a n d a m a h a r a j Deglurkar was the chief guest at this function which took place at the Parshuram Saikhedkar Auditorium.

While speaking on this occasion, the chief guest said that the Vedas have given a great culture to India. Culture is a mixture of Religion, Spirituality and Philosophy. He expressed unhappiness over the fact that Vedas are being neglected in recent times. Information covering our entire life is found in the Vedas. He hailed the efforts of Kisanlal Sarda in taking this treasure to our next generation.

He informed that the Vedas occupy the first place in the global survey of Oral Heritage of World. Dr. T.N. Dharmadhikari chaired the function.

The three winners of this award were B. K. Lakshminarayanji Bhat - a modern Vedic scholar from Kundapur, Karnataka; Vasudevan Nambugiri T. N. - Samahiti Denertha Vedadhyayi from Kurumaratillam, Kerala, who has been teaching Vedas since last 25 years with specialization in Rugveda and B. Y. Subbakrishna Dikshit - Vedapathi from Kote, Karnataka.

The award carried a cash prize of Rs 21000 with a letter of honour.

Students of the Guru Gangeshwar Ved Mandir were felicitated with certificates. These students were Tushar Bidwai, Omkar Dani, Kunal Kale of the first year; Rahul Sharma, Mukesh Thakur, Sudam Devialkar, Shivam Upadhye, Gopal Dayma, Shubham Kulkarni, Prasahnt Mishra and Abhishek Puranik of second year while Saurabh Joshi, Manoj Kulkarni, Jagdish Kulkarni, Tushar Deshpande, Bhushan Verulkar, Sushant Belgaonkar, Bhushan Upadhye, Rushabh Joshi, Mithilesh Joshi, Krushchandra Jha, Nikhil Nisal for the third year.

The function began with the chanting of Vedas. Kisanlal Sarda gave the introduction. Rishikesh Ayachit anchored. Kirandevi Sarda, Shrirang Sarda, Suchitra Sarda, Nashikites and students of Vedas were present in large numbers on this occasion.

